PHỞ

Phở, which is pronounced as "fuh", it is a beef-based soup delicately cooked with seven different herbs. This delightfully aromatic and splendidly appetizing broth in combination with rice noodle and many difference cuts of beef can make a very adequate meal. In addition, the soup is served with a condiment of bean sprouts, basil leaves, jalapeño pepper, and a wedge of lime. For a perfect authentic taste, add a few squirts of hot chili rooster sauce and sweet hoisin sauce
